

"There's a fine line between recognizing the humanity of all people and amplifying the voices of people with a hateful position. Not all people should be on a platform but all people deserve to be recognized for their humanity"

- Joe Millano CHS Physics teacher